Data protection privacy notice (employment)

This notice explains what personal data (information) we hold about you, how we collect it, and how we use and may share information about you during your employment and after it ends. We are required to notify you of this information under data protection legislation. Please ensure that you read this notice (sometimes referred to as a 'privacy notice') and any other similar notice we may provide to you from time to time when we collect or process personal information about you.

Who collects the information

Quadrant Recruitment Ltd ('Company') is a 'data controller' and gathers and uses certain information about you. This information is also used by our affiliated entities and group companies (our 'group companies') and so, in this notice, references to 'we' or 'us' mean the Company and our group companies.

Data protection principles

We will comply with the data protection principles when gathering and using personal information, as set out in our data protection policy.

About the information we collect and hold

We may collect the following information during your employment:

Quadrant A1 Cleaning Services Ltd

- Details of your use of business-related social media, such as LinkedIn;
- Your use of public social media (only in very limited circumstances, to check specific risks for specific functions within our organisation; you will be notified separately if this is to occur); and
- Details in references about you that we give to others.

Certain of the categories above may not apply to you if you are a worker, agency worker, independent contractor, freelancer, volunteer or intern.

How we collect the information

We may collect this information from you, your personnel records, the Home Office, share scheme administrators, pension administrators, your doctors, from medical and occupational health professionals we engage and from our insurance benefit administrators, the DBS, your trade union, other employees, consultants and other professionals we may engage, e.g. to advise us generally and/or in relation to any grievance, conduct appraisal or performance review procedure (including but not limited to door entry systems, swipe card systems, time management system, time clock records, application logs), automated monitoring of our websites and other technical systems, such as our computer networks and connections, CCTV and access control systems, communications systems, remote access systems, email and instant messaging systems, intranet and Internet facilities, telephones, voicemail, mobile phone records, and other relevant systems such as data loss prevention tools, eDiscovery technology and mobile device management systems.

Why we collect the information and how we use it

We will typically collect and use this information for the following purposes (other purposes that may also apply are explained in our data protection policy):

- for the performance of a contract with you, or to take steps to enter into a contract;
- for compliance with a legal obligation (e.g. our obligations to you as your employer under employment protection and health safety legislation, and under statutory codes of practice, such as those issued by ACAS); and
- for the purposes of our legitimate interests or those of a third party (such as a benefits provider), but only if these are not overridden by your interests, rights or freedoms.

We seek to ensure that our information collection and processing is always proportionate. We will notify you of any material changes to information we collect or to the purposes for which we collect and process it.

How we may share the information

We may also need to share some of the above categories of personal information with other parties, such as external contractors, our professional advisers, including but not limited to external lawyers and accountants, any factoring companies that we may engage from time to time and with potential purchasers of some or all of our business or on a re-structuring. Usually, information will be anonymised, but this may not always be possible. The recipient of the information will be bound by confidentiality obligations. We may also be required to share some personal information with our regulators or as required to comply with the law.

Where information may be held

Information may be held at our offices and those of our group companies, and third party agencies, service providers, representatives and agents as described above. We have security measures in place to seek to ensure that there is appropriate security for information we hold

How long we keep your information

We keep your information during and after your employment for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the personal information is processed. Further details on this are available in our information retention policy.

Your rights to correct and access your information and to ask for it to be erased

Please contact our Data Protection Officer (DPO) Erden Buyandelger if (in accordance with applicable law) you would like to correct or request access to information that we hold relating to you or if you have any questions about this notice. You also have the right to ask our Data Protection Officer for some but not all of the information we hold and process to be erased (the 'right to be forgotten') in certain circumstances.

Keeping your personal information secure

We have appropriate security measures in place to prevent personal information from being accidentally lost or used or accessed in an unauthorised way. We limit access to your personal information to those who have a genuine business need to know it. Those processing your information will do so only in an authorised manner and are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We also have procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach. We will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected data security breach where we are legally required to do so.

How to complain

We hope that our Data Protection Officer can resolve any query or concern you raise about our use of your information. If not, contact the Information Commissioner at ico.org.uk/concerns/ or telephone: 0303 123 1113 for further information about your rights and how to make a formal complaint.

You are required (by law or under the terms of your contract of employment, or in order to enter into your contract of employment) to provide essential information such as details of your status and related documentation such as your passport, driving licence and home address in order to enable us to verify your right to work in the UK and suitability for the position, to pay you, to provide you with your contractual benefits, and to administer statutory payments such as statutory sick pay (SSP). If you do not provide this information, we may not be able to employ you, to make these payments or provide these benefits.

Further information on the monitoring we undertake in the workplace and how we do this is available in our website and also available from your line manager and/or the HR department.
